Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Arthur LaCroix, mayor of Rapid City, has distinguished himself over the past 12 years as an outstanding administrator of Rapid City; and,

WHEREAS, During these past several years, Rapid City has expanded and grown into a leadership role in the state of South Dakota, and the region, due much in part to the leadership of Mayor Art LaCroix; and,

WHEREAS, During his years as mayor, Art LaCroix has been responsible for the expansion of the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center, construction of a new city hall and improvements at the Rapid City Regional Airport, just to name a few; and,

WHEREAS, Mayor Art LaCroix was known for saying, "I am not and will not be obligated to any one individual business or special interest," and has followed this motto during his tenure as mayor; and,

WHEREAS, Mayor Art LaCroix has earned the respect of the residents of Rapid City and the Governor of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 29, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join the residents of Rapid City and the citizens of South Dakota in expressing their gratitude and appreciation to Mayor Arthur LaCroix for his dedication and service to Rapid City and to this state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
